“No legal advice - just the facts!”

I am not an attorney and cannot give you legal advice. If you seek legal advice I can refer you to an attorney who is willing to consult with you for a flat fee. You may then choose to retain the attorney, or you can request I prepare your forms for you. You decide what is best for you and I can help you accomplish it.

Filing for Divorce?

Did you know the majority of family law cases filed in this Circuit have no attorney on at least one side? Self-Help litigants are people who choose to participate in a legal proceeding without the benefit of an attorney. More and more people are choosing this alternative. While only an attorney can give you legal advice, not everyone can afford, or wants to use, an attorney. If you are one of these people, I can help. I provide expert assistance in legal form preparation and instruction on local rules and procedures for divorce. I can also assist you in other areas of family law. I use only Supreme Court authorized forms. These forms are required for all non-attorney service providers throughout the 19th Judicial Circuit which includes Martin, St. Lucie, Indian River and Okeechobee Counties. For those in need, I provide free procedural information on domestic violence, and I can direct you to alternative referrals for greater needs involving your safety and that of your children.

Other Areas of Family Law

- Modifications of
  - Child Support
  - Custody
  - Visitation
- Stepparent Adoption
- Petition for Paternity
- Contempt / Enforcements
- Temporary Legal Custody
- Name Changes, Adults / Minors
- Free information on Domestic Violence

Let my 13 years experience in family law work for you. I can give you confidence in attending your final hearing as a Pro Se litigant because you had your forms professionally prepared. I can make this difficult and sometimes confusing process easier and less stressful for you and your family. Call today for a fee schedule and free brochure on:

"Divorce: Process and Procedure"
